No members of public in attendance.

March meeting minutes approved, Lew first, Maddie second, unanimously approved.

Envelopes addressed.

1. Lisa: Town council notes: Most time spent concerning the Housing Elements. Some opp to Twin Oaks, but none for St Nick's and strong support for Fthill College. Senior housing element had approval from audience. Carriage House designated as historic site, discussion for remodel. Voted to approve Hunger at Home for picnic catering.
2. Sarah: Presenting the picnic budget, which compares 2022 and new budget for 2023. Neal Rayborn is managing car show and we have a robust list, 25 already signed, evites sent out, DJ, trains, inflatables, 360 Photo Booth, contest games, pony rides, reduced rates for Happily Ever Laughter, a town resident is doing magic show at no charge. We have some funds from TEDx overrun. Water is free, in glass. GreenWaste: Need more receptacles as we've had a mess at beverage and food stations.
Ice cream: Place ice cream in Shake Shack to utilize freezers?
Rajiv: Approximate change may confuse ppl? Could bundle snacks together.
April: Tell them where it is at registration. Many pluses, including water, freezers, shade.
Sarah: Need more space between committee tables so caterers could utilize ice cream station.
Rajiv: Motion to move ice cream to S Shack: Rajiv motioned to change location, Lew Jamison seconded, unanimously approved. Maddie is doing ice cream.
3. Volunteers: Youth Commission, registration, beverages, roaming volunteers to fill in gaps.
4. Sarah: Registration postcard will go out early May, QR code will be included on card. Larger signage for no pets.
5. Rajiv: Signage stating "residents only" at registration.
6. Tabling policy: Sarah: Table the tabling policy, committees will have a timeline to register and will be provided tables, chairs, tents, etc. Sheriff, Fire, Emergency, Hills 2000, GreenWaste, Cal Water, Purissima, SCCVE, Town Committees.
7. Post picnic Events: Adult softball game, movie, July 4th, etc.
8. Rajiv: Everyone happy? Meeting adjourned.
