Presents

Tales of Moody Road

Moody Road - lively center of action in the town's formative years. Come and hear tales shared by those who lived there at that time.

Joan Sherlock

Daughter of a town founder and among the earliest residents of upper Moody Road, as a child she freely roamed the neighborhood on horseback.

Joseph Kleitman

He spent his teen-age years on Moody Road doing what teen-agers do and later returned to the family home.

Karen Lemes

She was raised at Hidden Villa and lived there until she and her husband established their own family home across the road. They have always been active in the community.

Thomas McReynolds

Perspectives of a former planning commissioner, town council member, and mayor on past memorable controversies and implications for the future.
